PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the 49th National Conference of the Africa National Congress passed a resolution that the NEC should investigate the possibility of creating a Veterans League;

AND WHEREAS the 50th National Conference of the ANC instructed the NEC as a matter of urgency to establish in the Office of the President and Provincial Chairpersons a Standing Commission on Veterans whose responsibility will be to mobilise Veterans of the movement, to integrate them into the structures, cadernship development and other programmes of the movement at all levels, and to address the specific issue and problems affecting them;

AND WHEREAS the 51st National Conference of the ANC resolved that steps should be taken to effectively utilise the Veterans of the ANC as a resource for the organisation. Branches should also incorporate Veterans into their programmes and make them a core part of education on the ANC;

AND WHEREAS the 52nd National Conference of the ANC agreed that Veterans are Comrades of advanced age, who have given unbroken and uninterrupted service to the movement and the people of South Africa over several decades of struggle. These comrades embody the organizational experience and memory of the movement and the people's struggle for freedom and democracy, and they can and should play an important role in reinforcing the traditions, history, values and unity of the movement;

AND WHEREAS the said Conference resolved to establish the African National Congress Veterans League finalizing the constitution and uniform, to be fully functioning at all levels by the time of the Centenary Anniversary, and the ANC membership system should be redesigned so as to recognize the Veterans;

AND WHEREAS a Constitutional amendment to the Constitution of the ANC is done to give effect to the establishment of the Veterans League as a Constitutional structure of the ANC.

NOW THEREFORE the Conference of the African National Congress Veterans League, duly constituted and assembled, cognisant of the historic mission of the Veterans and of the need to build a democratic structure to enable it to fulfil its historic mission, hereby adopt this Constitution, as follows:

DEFINITIONS

“ANCVL” means the African National Congress Veterans League;

“Member” means a person who has applied for and being accepted as a paid up member of the AN-CVL; is a South African citizen over 60 years of age and has 40 years of unbroken service to the ANC.

The words, terms and acronyms used in this Constitution shall bear the same meaning as that set out in the Definition Section of the Constitution of the African National Congress and shall be read as if incorporated herein.

References to structures, Officials, office bearers and committees shall mean a reference to such entities and individuals in the ANC Veterans League.

Rule 1 NAME

- 1.1 The name of the organisation is the African National Congress Veterans League; hereinafter referred to as the ANCVL.
- 1.2 The colours of the ANCVL are black, green and gold and the logo is as described in the attached schedule.

Rule 2 AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The aims and objectives of the ANCVL are:

- 2.1 To rally behind the African National Congress in the struggle to create a non-racial, non-sexist, united and prosperous society;
- 2.2 To support and reinforce the African National Congress in the attainment of the goals and objectives of the National Democratic Revolution;
- 2.3 To ensure that the veterans make a full and rich contribution to the work of the ANC, the movement and to the life of the nation;
- 2.4 To campaign for the ANC during elections at all level of Government;
- 2.5 To promote unity and patriotism among the Veterans, and the broader society;
- 2.6 To promote gender equality in all spheres of life;
- 2.7 To support and promote the struggle for the rights of children and the disabled;
- 2.8 To promote among Veterans the spirit of international solidarity, peace and friendship with other nations;
- 2.9 To champion the cause of the African Renaissance
- 2.10 The Veterans League shall have authority to advise and guide to the extend of intervening in any disputes or conflicts that relate to the integrity, ethics and values that may rise within all levels of the ANC structures.
- 2.11 To ensure that the basic tenets of our revolution are maintained in developing our people and resources of our country.

- 2.12. The ANC Veterans League shall mobilise and advocate against ill-discipline and discrimination based on age in the ANC structures and broader society.

Rule 3 THE CHARACTER OF THE ANCVL

- 3.1 The ANCVL is non-racial and non-sexist in character and is against any form of tribalistic exclusivism or ethnic chauvinism.
- 3.2 The ANCVL operates on the policies and principles of the African National Congress.

Rule 4 RELATIONSHIP WITH THE AFRICAN NATIONAL CONGRESS

- 4.1 The Veterans League shall function as an autonomous body in the conduct of its affairs and in the administration and control of its resources, within the overall structure of the ANC of which it shall be an integral part, with its own constitution, rules and regulations, provided that these shall not be in conflict with the Constitution and policies of the ANC.
- 4.2 Structures of the ANCVL shall work in close co-operation with the ANC at all levels (national, provincial, regional, zonal and branch levels).
- 4.3 The Treasurer General of the ANC shall provide the ANCVL with an annual budget, together with supplementary grant funding for specific projects and tasks, for the performance of its duties.
- 4.4 With the written permission of the Treasurer General of the ANC, the NEC may establish a trust for the exclusive benefit of the ANCVL.
- 4.5 The books of account of the ANCVL shall be open for inspection by the Treasurer General of the ANC.

Rule 5 MEMBERSHIP

- 5.1 Membership of the Veterans League shall be open to all ANC members 60 years of age or older, who have served the ANC and the movement for an unbroken period of 40 years.
- 5.2 The NEC may, acting on its own or on the recommendations of Branch or Provincial Executive Committees, grant honorary membership to those men and women who do not qualify for membership under Rule 5.1, but who have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to the ANC, ANCVL and its policies.
- 5.3 Applications for membership shall be considered by the branch executive committee, or such structure as the Provincial Executive Committee or the NEC may create from time to time to decide on applications. These structures may accept or refuse any application for membership provided such acceptance or refusal shall be subject to review by the next higher organ of the Veterans League.
- 5.4 Membership cards will be issued to registered members of the League and to persons whose application for membership has been accepted, subject to review as aforesaid, and, in all cases, subject to payment of the prescribed membership fee. An applicant will be issued with acknowledgement of provisional membership and the details of the branch in which the applicant resides and any available information about the local branch structures.
- 5.5 Provisional membership will apply to persons who wish to join the League for the first time or wish to re-join the League after a considerable lapse of time or circumstances determined by the NEC.
- 5.6 Provisional membership rights commence from the date of acknowledgement following receipt of the application and the appropriate membership subscription. A provisional member may attend branch meetings only in a non-voting capacity.
- 5.7 Any objection to any application for membership may be made by any member of the League to the branch, regional or provincial secretary within 6 (six) months of the notification.
- 5.8 At any time before the individual is accepted as a full member of the League, or in exceptional circumstances even after the member has been admitted, the Secretary-General may rule that the application or the membership may be rejected if it was invalidly obtained.
- 5.9 In the absence of any objection from the structures and/or any ruling by the Secretary-General, the applicant shall, on expiry of 6 (six) months from date of notification of provisional membership, become a full member. The provisional member will then be transferred to the national membership list as a full member as soon as is practicable.
- 5.10 The reason for the rejection of an application for membership by the Secretary-General or the objection by the membership to the application for membership must be sent to the individual applicant in writing.
- 5.11 Members shall pay an annual subscription fee as determined by the NEC.
- 5.12 Non-earning members or those on reduced incomes will pay such fees as are determined by the NEC.
- 5.13 Members who fail to pay their subscriptions for three months and having being reminded of their lapse will not be regarded as members in good standing until they pay their arrears.

Rule 6 RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS

6.1 RIGHTS

A member of the ANCVL shall be entitled to:

- 12.1 A National General Council may be convened by the NEC from time to time, provided that the NEC shall convene a National General Council not later than 30 (thirty) months after the National Conference.
- 12.2 The NEC will, after consultation with Provinces, determine the composition of the National General Council.
- 12.3 The National General Council shall:
 - 12.3.1 Subject to 12.3.3 and 12.3.4 below, determine and review the policies and programmes of the Veterans League;
 - 12.3.2 Receive and discuss reports of the NEC;
 - 12.3.3 Have the right to ratify, alter or rescind any decision taken by any of the constituent bodies, units or officials of the Veterans League, including evaluation of the performance of members of the NEC; and
 - 12.3.4 Have the power to discuss any issue it deems necessary taking into account policies and directives of the National Conference.
- 12.4 The NGC may fill vacancies that have arisen in the NEC provided that such vacancies do not exceed 50% (fifty percent) of the NEC.

Rule 13 NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Powers of the NEC

- 13.1 The National Executive Committee is the highest organ of the Veterans League between Conferences and has the authority to lead the organisation, subject to the provision of this Constitution.
- 13.2 Without prejudice to the generality of its powers, the NEC shall:
 - 13.2.1 Carry out the decisions and instructions of the National Conference and National General Council;
 - 13.2.2 Issue and send directives and instructions to and receive reports from the Provinces;
 - 13.2.3 Supervise and direct the work of the Veterans League and all its organs;
 - 13.2.4 Ensure that the provincial and branch structures of the Veterans League function democratically and effectively;
 - 13.2.5 Have the power to suspend or dissolve a PEC where necessary. A suspension of a PEC shall not exceed a period of three months. Election for a PEC, which has been dissolved, shall be called within nine months from dissolution. The NEC may appoint an interim structure during the period of suspension or dissolution of the PEC to fulfil the function of the PEC;
 - 13.2.6 Establish departments and set up committees, as it considers appropriate;
 - 13.2.7 Produce and issue policy statements as and when it deems it necessary;
 - 13.2.8 Receive reports, supervise the work of, and delegate such functions to the National Working Committee, as it considers necessary;

- 13.2.9 Manage and control all the National and other properties and assets of the Veterans League;
- 13.2.10 Issue documents and other policy directives as and when it deems fit;
- 13.2.11 Confer such honours, as it may deem appropriate;
- 13.2.12 Request the ANC to institute disciplinary proceedings against any member and temporarily suspend the membership of any member;
- 13.2.13 Have the power to delegate any of its powers to the NWC, the Officials or the Secretary General;
- 13.2.14 Take all steps necessary or warranted for the due fulfilment of the aims and objectives of the ANCVL and the due performance of its duties; and
- 13.2.15 The NEC may convene a Policy Conference, as a recommendation-making body on any matter of policy, whenever it deems necessary, but must convene a National Policy Conference at least nine months before the National Conference to review policies of the League and to recommend any new or to amend any present policy for consideration by the National Conference.

Composition of the NEC

- 13.3 The National Executive Committee except where otherwise stipulated shall be elected by secret ballot by the National Conference and shall hold office for 5 (five) years and shall be constituted as follows:

- 13.3.1 The President, Deputy President, the Secretary General, Deputy Secretary General and the Treasurer General who will be elected separately by the National Conference.
- 13.3.2 Twenty-seven (27) members of the NEC. The NEC shall be constituted on the basis of 50/50 gender parity.
- 13.3.3 The Chairperson and the Secretary of each elected ANCVL Provincial Executive Committee who shall be ex-officio members of the NEC.
- 13.3.4 The NEC may co-opt not more than five (5) additional members at any time during its term in office.
- 13.4 Should a vacancy occur on the NEC for any reason, the NEC shall have the power to fill the vacancy by appointing a replacement.
- 13.5 The quorum for meetings of the NEC shall be 50%+1 of its total membership.

Election of the NEC

- 13.6 Nomination for the NEC members shall be by the following procedure:
 - 13.6.1 Subject to subrule 13.6.2 below, nominations for the post of:
 1. President
 2. Deputy President
 3. Secretary General
 4. Deputy Secretary General
 5. Treasurer General

shall be made by any Province and placed before the National Conference.
 - 13.6.2 A delegate to the Conference shall, however, have the right to nominate any person whose name has not been proposed in terms of sub-section 13.6.1 above. In such event the presiding officer shall call for seconders to the nomination. If such nomination is seconded by a minimum of 25% of the Conference delegates, then such nomination must be regarded as having been duly seconded, in which event the name of such nominee shall be placed on the ballot paper. If the nomination fails to secure the support of a minimum of 25% of Conference delegates, such nomination shall fall away.

13.6.3 Nominations of candidates for the NEC other than the above positions shall be carried out by the following procedure:

13.6.4 Subject to sub-rule 13.6.5 below, only those candidates who have been proposed by a Province shall appear on the National Conference ballot paper.

13.6.5 Subject to subrule 13.6.6 below, a delegate to the Conference shall, however, have the right to nominate any person whose name has not been proposed in terms of sub-section 13.6.1 above. In such event the presiding officer shall call for seconders to the nomination. If such nomination is seconded by a show of hands by a minimum of 25% of Conference delegates, then such nomination must be regarded as having been duly seconded, in which event the name of such nominee shall be placed on the ballot paper. If the nomination fails to secure the support of a minimum of 25% of delegates, such nomination shall fall away.

13.6.6 Not more than two persons per province may be successfully nominated in terms of 13.6.2 above.

13.7 Voting shall take place by secret ballot. Each voting delegate shall vote once in each ballot.

13.8 If any Provincial Chairperson or Secretary is elected to the NEC in his or her own right or as a national official, such person shall vacate the Provincial position, provided that the Province has a right to make representations to the NEC, in a special case, where extraordinary circumstances may warrant an exception to this rule. However, when such a provincial officer is allowed to retain his or her NEC position, the Province shall not be entitled to an additional member on the NEC.

13.9 Subject to the provision of this Constitution, the Secretary General, and the Deputy Secretary General shall be full-time functionaries of the Veterans League. The NEC may decide based on the resources available for other officials or NEC members to be full time functionaries.

13.10 The NEC shall meet in plenary session at least once every 3 (three) months and will provide broad political and organisational perspective to the National Working Committee.

13.11 The NEC may invite any member of the Veterans League to attend its meetings. Such member may participate in the meeting and be allocated tasks to perform on behalf of the NEC, but shall not vote on any issue.

Rule 14 NATIONAL WORKING COMMITTEE (NWC)
